

Leave Your Legacy: How To Remember the LCB in your Will

The LCB General Fund pays for expenses of the band each concert season. Your bequests to the band's general fund help to offset those expenses and allow the LCB to further its musical mission. When you name our endowment fund in your estate plan, you leave a legacy for generations to know that you cared about the Lansing Concert Band.

Bequest to the LCB General Fund

I, _____ (testator's name) give _____ (a specific dollar amount, percentage, or the residual of my estate) upon my death to the Lansing Concert Band Association, P.O. Box 11152, Lansing, Michigan 48901-11152, IRS Tax Identification Number 38-2474910, to be used for the benefit and unrestricted use of the Lansing Concert Band Association. (Please make checks payable to The Lansing Concert Band).

Bequest to the LCB via the Capital Region Community Foundation

I, _____ (testator's name) give _____ (a specific dollar amount, percentage, or the residual of my estate) upon my death, to the Lansing Concert Band Association, to be used for the benefit and unrestricted use of the Lansing Concert Band Association IRS Tax Identification Number 38-2474910 via the Capital Region Community Foundation EIN 38-2776652. Phone 517-272-2870. You may choose to donate online \(https://ourcommunity.org/donor-services/donate-now?fn=lansing-concert-band-endowment-fund\) Or, you may choose to write checks payable to the "Lansing Concert Band Endowment Fund." Mail checks to the Capital Region Community Foundation, 330 Marshall Street, Suite 300, Lansing Michigan 48912.

Please consult with your attorney about your estate plan, Will, and all of your specific bequests. This bequest language is provided for your convenience and is not intended to be legal advice.